SECTION 7 | OPTIONAL ARTS AND SCIENCE EQUITY SUPPORT FUND

1.07.01

The Queen's University Muslim Students Association (QUMSA) represents and caters to the needs of the entire Muslim community at Queen's University. The Association provides a platform to foster support, advocacy, and community for a critical minority on campus. QUMSA events and activities are open to the Queen's community at large, regardless of faith and background. QUMSA is committed to hosting daily Iftar dinners throughout Ramadan, offering community and support to fasting students and community members on campus. For non-local Muslim students at Queen's, far from home and familial support, breaking their fast within a community is not just a tradition but a vital aspect of their mental and social well-being. QUMSA strives to ensure that no student faces isolation or the distress of being without a meal during Ramadan.

The costs of QUMSA's Ramadan Iftar Program have dramatically increased with the growing numbers of Muslim students, and have extended beyond the reach of mere community support and student donations. In recent years, QUMSA has faced multiple gaps and barriers in receiving crucial funding and support from Queen's University administration and overarching student governments. The ASUS Equity Support Fee—which seeks to assist student groups on campus whose mission statements are directly related to supporting equity-deserving students—aims to address this history by allocating eighty percent (80%) of its funding to the Ramadan Iftar Program, a vital program in urgent need of support.

1.07.02

Each student enrolled in the Faculty of Arts and Science will have the option to pay the Equity Support Fee at $1.25 to aid in accomplishing the Society objectives of supporting equity seeking groups on campus. Specifically, this fee aims to financially support student groups on campus whose mission statements are directly related to fostering community and advocating for historically under-represented and disadvantaged groups. .

1.07.03

For the 2024 – 2025 and 2025 – 2026 academic years, of the total revenues collected from the Equity Support Fee, eighty percent (80%) shall be allocated to supporting QUMSA's Ramadan Iftar Program. After the 2025 – 2026 academic year, this fee will be up for review by ASUS Assembly during the Annual General Meeting at which time, a different percentage may be allocated to QUMSA based on their need for funding at the time.

1.07.04

The ASUS Vice President of Operations shall be responsible for contacting QUMSA annually before the end of the fall semester to ensure QUMSA is aware that they receive this funding and later to inform them of the exact dollar amount they will receive. ASUS shall send these funds to QUMSA by the end of January of 2025. This date shall be agreed upon yearly to accommodate for the change in Ramadan start dates year-to-year.

1.07.05

The remaining twenty percent (20%) of the funds collected during the 2024–2025 and 2025–2026 academic years through the Equity Support Fund shall be distributed to other equity-seeking student groups through the ASUS Equity Grants under the ASUS Equity Commission.

1.07.06

Any decisions regarding this fund shall involve the ASUS Equity Commissioner, and any committee convened regarding this fee shall be chaired by the ASUS Equity Commissioner.

1.07.07

The Arts and Science Equity Support Fee, insofar as they constitute dues or fees payable by undergraduate students, shall be established or altered only via an Arts and Science Undergraduate Society (ASUS)-wide internal referendum. The Arts and Science Equity Support Fee is a reviewable optional fee that is subject to both individual opt-out and triennial review.

1.07.08

The Arts and Science Equity Support Fee revenues should be directly allocated to a new revenue line of the General Operating Budget titled "Equity Support Fund" which shall be part of the Executives' Budget. Revenues should only be used to fund equity-seeking student groups and their events.

Any surplus incurred by the Arts and Science Equity Support Fee should be allocated as carry-over into the following year's Equity Support Fee's revenue line, noted as carry-over in the present General Operating Budget, upon closure, and in the succeeding General Operating Budget, upon opening.
